

History

History Objectid	3
History Event	The block and crank were acquired from The Anson Museum as part of an exchange with the large Hornsby R Type from Dartmoor. Main bearings, big end, flywheels and main bearing caps were missing. Two unmachined main bearing caps came with the engine.
Event Date	2000-06-10