

History

History Objectid	5
History Event	Paul Evans and Keith Farley went down in early January 2003 to view the engine at Ellerslie near Exeter. The engine was in a dismantled state stored in an open fronted barn and suffering from some weathering. The main bed was on a partially collapsed farm trailer and parts were to be found all over the site.
Event Date	2003-01-10