Description
Image	 A large, red-painted metal wheel with a wooden hub and six spokes. The wheel is positioned in a cluttered workshop or garage. The floor is covered with debris, including leaves and small pieces of trash. In the background, there are various tools, a green bucket, and other equipment. The lighting is somewhat dim, with a bright area near a window or doorway in the background.
Thumb	 A small thumbnail image of the red metal wheel, showing the same object as the main image but at a smaller scale.
