1,114,963		 A close-up photograph of a white Alfa Romeo engine. A black nameplate is mounted on the front, featuring the Alfa Romeo logo and the text "Alfa Romeo", "Ricardo", "RT 6 B.H.C. 60 N° 3694", and "ALFA ROMEO LTD. MILANO, KENT, ENGLAND". A white, conical air filter is visible on top of the engine. The number "0098" is painted on the white casing below the nameplate.
1,114,963		 A photograph showing two white Alfa Romeo engines in a workshop. The engine in the foreground is a four-cylinder model with a large flywheel and a blue water pump. The engine in the background is a similar model, also with a large flywheel. Both engines are mounted on wooden blocks. A green metal frame is visible in the background.
