Description
Image	 A large, rectangular metal plate, heavily rusted and covered in green moss. The plate is mounted on a surface with several large, hexagonal bolts. In the center, the text "REAYELL & CO LTD" is embossed in large, bold letters, followed by "IPSWICH" and "ENGLAND" in slightly smaller letters. Above this text is a smaller, rectangular metal plate with four bolts, containing the following text: "SA5", "2004", "2058", "800", and "100". Below the main text is another smaller, rectangular metal plate with four bolts, containing the text "CORROSION" and "S-100".
Thumb	 A small, square thumbnail image of the metal plate, showing the same details as the main image but at a smaller scale.
