Description	On the floor at the museum
Image	 A photograph showing a large, dark-colored industrial engine mounted on a truck. A red crane is lifting the engine by chains. A man in a green jacket and dark boots stands next to the engine, looking at it. The scene is outdoors on a paved area, possibly a museum floor. In the background, there are large metal structures and a cloudy sky. The date '2003/06/21' is printed in yellow in the bottom right corner of the image.
Thumb	 A small thumbnail version of the main image, showing the engine on the truck. The date '2003/06/21' is visible in the bottom right corner.
