Description	Unloading at the museum 1
Image	 A large blue truck with a crane is shown in the process of unloading a large, complex engine component from its flatbed. The engine is mounted on a metal frame and is being lifted by the truck's crane. A person in a dark jacket and blue pants is visible in the foreground, bending over a blue tarp. The truck has "HICKETS" written on its side. The background shows a building with a "Simplex" sign.
Thumb	 A small thumbnail image of the truck and engine component, showing the same scene as the main image but at a smaller scale.
