1,628	After arrival at the museum	 A photograph showing three large, green industrial engines or generators. The central engine is the largest and is mounted on a wooden pallet. It has a label with the number '410006'. To its left and right are two smaller, similar engines. They are parked on a paved surface next to some trees and a building.
1,628	Unloading at the museum	 A photograph showing the three green engines being unloaded from a red flatbed truck. A crane is lifting one of the engines. Three men are present: one standing on the truck bed, one on the ground in a blue shirt and red pants, and another on the ground in a dark sweater and jeans. The background shows a building with a grey roof and some trees.
