2,615	Running, Easter Crankup 2008	 A large, green-painted vintage engine with two prominent red flywheels is mounted on a heavy wooden frame. The engine is positioned outdoors on a dirt and gravel surface. A black vertical rod is attached to the left side of the engine. The background shows some grass and a small puddle.	 A small, square thumbnail image showing a different angle of the same green and red engine, highlighting its compact size and the red flywheels.
