Description	Being removed from long term home with David Curwen
Image	 A photograph showing two men working on a large, green, mechanical device, possibly a pump or engine, outdoors. The man on the left is wearing a black shirt and glasses, and the man on the right is wearing a grey shirt. They are both leaning over the device, which is mounted on a wooden platform. The background shows a grassy area with yellow flowers and a blue door.
Thumb	 A small thumbnail version of the main image, showing the two men working on the green mechanical device.
