Description	On arrival
Image	 A photograph of a green vintage engine, possibly a small tractor or generator engine, resting inside a wooden crate. The engine is painted a dark green color and has several bolts and a spark plug visible. A white tag with the handwritten text 'LP27' is attached to the top of the engine. The engine is surrounded by wooden planks and other wooden components of the crate.
Thumb	 A small, square thumbnail image of the green engine, showing the same scene as the main image but at a much smaller scale.
