Image	 A photograph of a large, green industrial engine, likely a steam engine, displayed in a museum. The engine is mounted on a concrete base and is viewed through a green metal railing. The engine has various pipes, valves, and gauges. In the background, another engine is visible, and a sign on the wall reads "POWER HA 1". The setting is an indoor space with a concrete floor and a white wall.
